THE BALLOT INITIATIVES (PROPOSITIONS):The Northside Democrats recommend the following actions.

NOTE that propositions passed by the voters can only be changed by a statewide vote or a supermajority of the legislature. The wording of propositions may be obscure or deceptive. If you don't understand the wording or don't agree with ALL parts of a proposition, consider voting NO and working for change within the legislature.

PROPOSITION:	VOTE:
125 "PUBLIC RETIREMENT SYSTEMS" - bipartisan amendment to stabilize and improve the AZ pension system for corrections officers and elected officials, resulting in tax savings; unanimously approved by all State legislators.	YES
126 "PROHIBITION OF TAXATION OF SERVICES". An unnecessary, misleading, special-interest amendment that would prevent cities and the state from dealing effectively with economic changes. Arizona does not tax services.	NO
127 "RENEWABLE ENERGY PRODUCTION" - requires AZ electricity providers to produce 50% of electricity from renewable sources by 2030. Investment in solar and wind technology is expected to create jobs, reduce pollution, improve health, and reduce energy costs by $4 billion. For more information: cleanhealthyaz.com	YES
305 "EXPANSION OF EDUCATION EMPOWERMENT SCHOLARSHIP ACCOUNTS " - An attempt to increase SCHOOL VOUCHERS, which privatize education by taking tax revenues away from the public school system and funding private, religious, and home-based schooling. For more information: teamsosarizona.com/get-the-facts	NO
306 "CLEAN ELECTIONS " - an amendment to undercut the independence of the Clean Elections Commission , and to prevent publicly funded candidates from using their own party's resources. See: azadvocacy.org/noprop306	NO
